RISO to showcase production print solutions at virtual.drupa

LONDON, ENGLAND RISO KAGAKU CORPORATION (RISO) is pleased to announce that it will showcase its latest innovations at the virtual.drupa digital event taking place from April 20 to April 23, 2021.

Leading the way with VALEZUS, the world's fastest production printing press capable of speeds of 320ppm duplex, the ComColor GD series and new generation of inkjet ComColor FT series will also be introduced at the event.

Full details of RISO products, including videos and applications, will be available and a dedicated person will be on hand to answer questions from visitors.

RISO also has a special LIVE Web Session from 11:20am (CET) on April 21, 2021 to introduce its unique and latest inkjet solution, along with a machine demonstration and Q&A session.
